

Barcode Label Management Solution

ThingsLabel

Asset management

Quantity, status, and division instructions of label print available

Label configuration management

Integrated management including version/modification/approval process through label version

Support for various barcode types

Support most of the barcode types currently used as mainstream

Completely eliminate professionalism

Even non-specialists design as easily as Paint

Cost saving

Zero redundant investment per system!

Non-specialist can easily design/print barcode label like using Paint.

Ultimate integrated solution for enterprise label management

Low cost without redundant investment

Solve the problem of redundant investment per system

Convenient Asset Management

Ability to manage print quantity, operating status, work split, etc.

Label integrated management function

Integrated label sources for management and application

Non-specialist can also easily design label

Eliminate barriers that only professionals could design/modify

Label version management

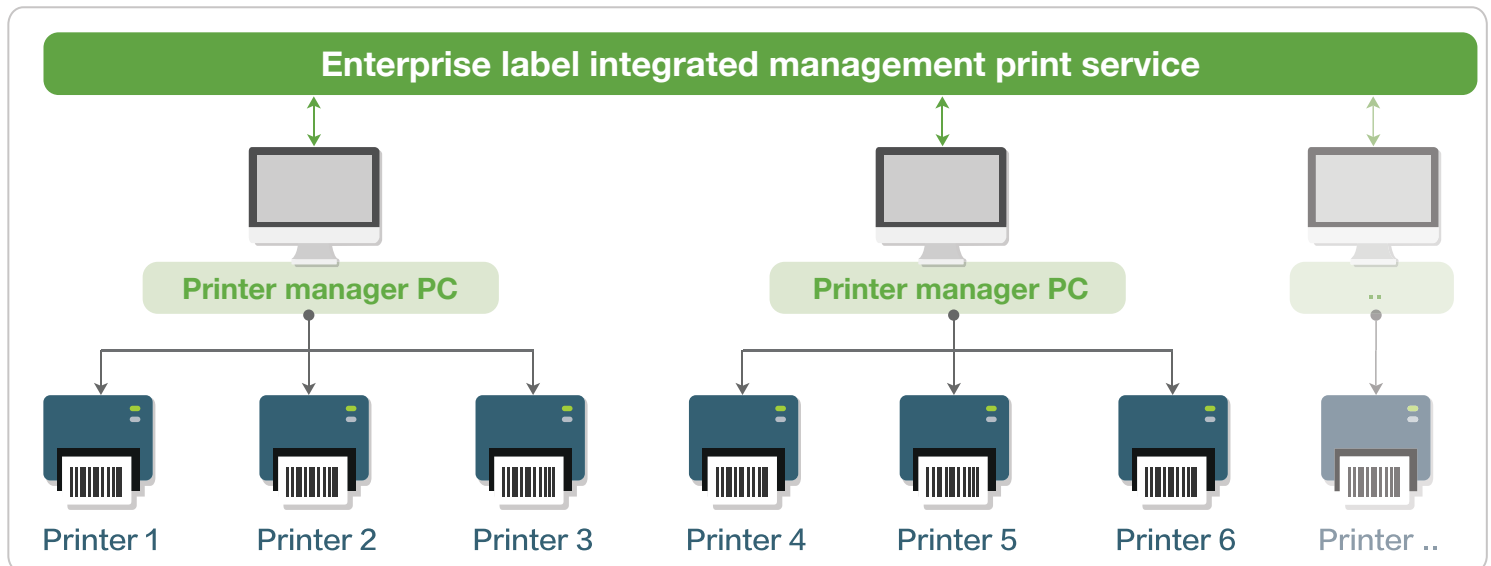

Manage the version, reason for modification, approval process of label

Label visualization and sharing

Identify and share customer needs and design label results

System Architecture

Barcode Label Management Solution

ThingsLabel

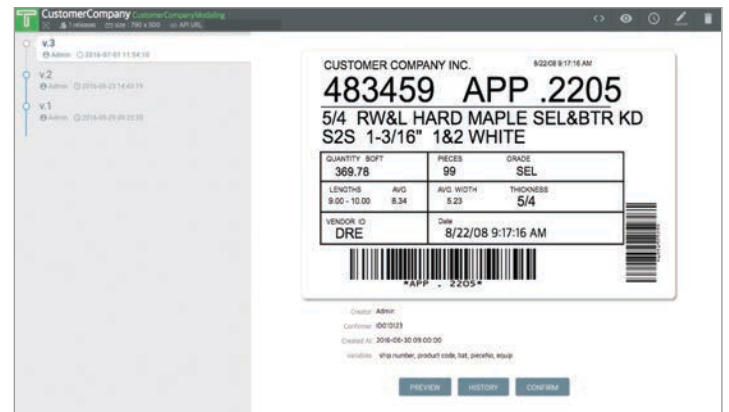

Things Label, which is a HatioLab product, can support more than 50 kinds of mainly used barcodes, including Code 39, Code 49, Code 128, EAN13, and QR.

Label List

Label Detail Information

Label Modeling

Label Preview & Source Code

